BWV 2, titled "Christ lag in Todesbanden", is actually a chorale cantata based on Martin Luther's hymn, but its thematic content and musical style bear traces of Bach's early engagement with the Magnificat's musical language. They encompass a wide range of emotions—from praise and thanksgiving to lament and supplication—making them a comprehensive spiritual resource. Canticles, on the other hand, are scriptural songs or hymns, often derived from biblical passages outside the Psalms, that are used in liturgical settings, especially within the Christian tradition.
